

SABC 21 Days, Spiritual Preparation for 2023

DANIEL

SABC: The Daniel Fast Devotional Guide

The Sixth Avenue Baptist Church family is devoting 21 days of the New Year, 2023, to seeking the Lord in prayer and fasting. We will begin January 2nd and end on January 22nd. We're calling this period the Daniel Fast, modeled after the biblical figure that followed a similar pattern as he sought the Lord.

Our purpose in fasting is to join our hearts together as we seek the Lord's presence in our church for the year, 2023.

The Bible says several things about fasting. Fasting is a deep and spiritual undertaking. It's intended to direct the heart and focus the attention on the things of God. My friend, Turner says, "The principle is that as we give up certain material things—like food—we connect more closely with spiritual things. Often during fasting the Lord will impart new revelation and spiritual authority." This devotional guide is intended to help us move through the days of fasting in an intentional manner, allowing the Spirit of God to speak through the Word of God in a way that touches our congregation.

You should make use of this devotional guide in whatever way best suits your situation and schedule. Perhaps, ten minutes in the morning before you go to work. Or you may share during the evening around the dinner table with your family. You may want to consider meeting with a friend or two on the phone or by email. Feel free to share verses, phrases, or your own thoughts with others through Facebook or twitter.

This devotional guide is only a suggestion. You may prefer a different Bible reading plan. Our congregation will follow this guide. Please see the end of documents for additional ways of fasting.

Join us for prayer, praise, and worship on Wednesday noon day & nights (January 8, 15, & 22). We will gather in the Sanctuary for corporate prayer, praise, and worship. If you cannot come to the sanctuary, we will gather on a Zoom call for persons to share in a time of directive prayer. We will start at 6:00 p.m. with the full hour. Join us and be prepared to pray with others.

Wednesday Noon:

January 4th, 12 Noon

January 11th, 12 Noon

January 18th, 12 Noon

Wednesday Evenings:

January 4th@ 6pm

January 11th @ 6pm

January 18th @ 6pm

I'm anticipating God to do a work in our congregation through these three weeks! As we join our hearts together and seek the Lord's presence in our church for the coming year, we should expect God to make His presence known in our worship, our Sunday School and small bible study groups, our Children and Youth ministries, College and Young Adult ministries, Senior adults, evangelism, and our mission outreach and in every other area of our church life. Thanks for being a part of the Daniel Fast with your brothers and sisters in Christ!

Brother Rosevelt!
Associate Pastor

Notes: Fasting Diet

The diet is like a vegan diet and includes only fruit, vegetables, whole grains, and water. Foods consumed on the Daniel Fast should be as close to their natural state as possible.

Canned or frozen fruits or vegetables must not contain any added preservatives, salt, sugar, or sweeteners. Whole grains, such as brown rice or oatmeal, are also acceptable on the diet. Refined grains, such as most cereal grains, are completely restricted during the fast.

FOODS TO AVOID ON THE DANIEL FAST

- All meat & animal products – bacon, beef, buffalo, eggs, fish, lamb, poultry, and pork.
- All dairy products – butter, cheese, cream, milk, and yogurt.
- All sweeteners – agave nectar, artificial sweeteners, brown rice syrup, cane juice, honey, molasses, raw sugar, syrups, and sugar.
- All leavened bread & yeast – baked goods and Ezekiel bread (if it contains yeast and honey).
- All refined & processed food products – artificial flavorings, chemicals, food additives, preservatives, white flour, and white rice.
- All deep-fried foods – corn chips, French fries, and potato chips.
- All solid fats – lard, margarine, and shortening.
- Beverages – alcohol, carbonated drinks, coffee, energy drinks, and tea.

Snacks for the Daniel Fast To have a successful Daniel Fast, it's a good idea to have several snack foods available for those times when you "need a little something".

- Rice Cakes (Plain)
 - Rice Cakes with Peanut Butter and Raisins
 - Almonds
 - Dried Fruit including Apricots
 - Apples dipped in Nut Butter
 - Sliced Fruit
 - Veggies with dip (Daniel Fast Dip)
 - Popped Popcorn (Plain or Topped with Sea Salt)
 - Trail Mix with nuts, raisins, sunflower seeds, coconut pieces and dried fruit
 - Fruit Kabobs
 - Frozen Fruit including grapes, blueberries, strawberries, and bananas
- Whole Wheat Crackers with Nut Butter • Raisins • Mixed Nuts

Day 1 – What is a Daniel fast and why are we doing it?

Today's Scripture:

But Daniel resolved that he would not defile himself with the king's food, or with the wine that he drank...Then Daniel said to the steward whom the chief of the eunuchs has assigned over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, "Test your servants for ten days; let us be given vegetables to eat and water to drink." (Daniel 1:8,11-12)

"Then I turned my face to the Lord God, seeking him by prayer and pleas for mercy with fasting and sackcloth and ashes. I prayed to the Lord my God." (Daniel 9:3-4)

"In those days I, Daniel, was mourning for three weeks. I ate no delicacies, no meat or wine entered my mouth, nor did I anoint myself at all, for the full three weeks." (Daniel 10:2)

Today's Thought:

Daniel, a young Jewish man and leader in his community, was forcibly taken into exile by the Babylonian Empire that had defeated the nation of Judah. He was taken into the household of the king and there expected to conform to Babylonian customs, education, culture and even religion.

But Daniel refused to buy into a society and belief system so far removed from the faith he had known since childhood. So, he made a deal with his captors. He and his friends would observe a partial fast—that is, eating only simple, natural foods instead of the rich, decadent foods of the king—for a period (Daniel 1:8,11-12). Then the Babylonians would see how much healthier such a diet would make the young men, compared to others who had not observed the fast. They would see firsthand the results of godly convictions. Later, in Daniel 9:3-4, we see how prayer and fasting were the basis of Daniel's spiritual sensitivity and authority.

In the third passage in today's reading (Daniel 10:2), we find the mention of a 21-day period where Daniel devoted himself especially to prayer. The Daniel Fast brings together Daniel's biblical example into a single experience. For 21 days, our church is observing a fast like that practiced by this biblical model of passion and integrity as a way of focusing our hearts on the things of God.

Our purpose in fasting and praying is to join our hearts together as we seek the Lord's presence in our church for the coming year.

Today's Prayer:

Pray today that God would be glorified as we seek Him through the weeks of the Daniel Fast.

Day 2 – What can we expect God to do during the Daniel Fast? Part One – New Revelation

Today's Scripture

Then the mystery was revealed to Daniel in a vision of the night. Then Daniel blessed the God of heaven. Daniel answered and said: "Blessed be the name of the God forever and ever, to whom belong wisdom and might. He changes times and seasons; he removes kings and sets up kings; he gives wisdom to the wise and knowledge to those who have understanding; he reveals deep and hidden things (Daniel 2:19-22)

Today's Thought:

Daniel became known through the king's household as a man of unusual insight. His advice was sought after, and his wisdom was valued. But beyond the human dimensions of Daniel's abilities there was a deep, spiritual understanding of how God was at work. Today's Bible passage reflects a moment when Daniel's natural capacities were supernaturally expanded.

The Babylonian king had a dream that none of his advisors could interpret. Daniel was brought in to provide insight as to the dream's meaning. That night God revealed to Daniel how the dream was a template for the future of the Babylonian empire itself.

Talk about a moment of revelation! Daniel's spirit—trained and matured through the discipline of prayer and fasting—was open to the revelation God's Spirit imparted to him. The king and all the people around him were astonished but promptly accepted Daniel's words because they had about them the ring of truth.

Revelation isn't a magical notion; it's simply the way God speaks to his people through His Word to unfold His purposes. Daniel shows us how prayer and fasting align our spirits with God's Spirit, allowing a deeper insight into what God's doing in our lives and in the life of our church.

Are you struggling with a decision you need to make? Are you wrestling with understanding a situation in your life? The three weeks of the Daniel Fast may well be the time when the Lord brings you fresh revelation for some of the challenging areas of your life.

Today's Prayer:

Pray today that you'll hear and receive whatever the Lord may be saying to you through the course of the Daniel Fast.

Day 3 – What can we expect God to do during the Daniel Fast? Part Two – Spiritual Authority

Today's Scripture:

And behold, a hand touched me and set me trembling on my hands and knees. And he said to me, "O Daniel, man greatly loved, understand the words that I speak to you, and stand upright, for now I have been sent to you." And when he had spoken this word to me, I stood up trembling. Then he said to me, "Fear not, Daniel, for from the first day that you set your heart to understand and humbled yourself before your God, your words have been heard, and I have come because of your words. The prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me twenty-one days, but Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me..."
(Daniel 10:10-13)

Today's Thought:

We saw on the first day of the Daniel Fast how Daniel spent three weeks in prayer and fasting (Daniel 10:2). In today's passage we see the spiritual results of those twenty-one days.

The angel Gabriel (he's named in chapter nine) comes to Daniel, to assist him in response to his prayer. "You are greatly loved," the angel says then lays out a remarkable sequence of events. As soon as Daniel began praying Gabriel was dispatched from heaven. But a demonic figure called the "prince of the kingdom of Persia" kept him from arriving at Daniel's side. So, God's response to Daniel's prayer was delayed. I think we all know what that feels like!

How did Daniel respond to the delay? He kept praying! He didn't give up. One week. Then a second. Finally, a third for a total of twenty-one days! Then our passage says a second angel named Michael came to the rescue and helped Gabriel get through to Daniel. The prince of Persia was defeated, Gabriel arrived, and Daniel's prayer was answered.

Prayer is more than just reciting a laundry list of needs to God. Prayer engages spiritual forces that we cannot see with our human eyes but are real, nonetheless. Daniel's persistence in prayer is an incredible picture of spiritual warfare and the kind of praying that breaks through!

If there are strongholds in your life where you need God to work a miracle, the twenty-one days of the Daniel Fast might be what you've been waiting for. What better time to pour out your heart before the Lord in prayer? You may well experience the breakthrough you've been waiting for in life.

Today's Prayer:

Expand your spiritual influence today. Get in touch with someone you know who's struggling with a long-standing problem in their life. They need a breakthrough. Come alongside them in prayer for the duration of the Daniel Fast, seeking the Lord's intervention on their behalf. Join in faith and defeat the enemy.

Day 4 – Confession and Repentance

Today's Scripture: Psalms 139: 23-24: Search me, God, and know my heart; test me and know my concerns. See if there is any offensive way in me; lead me in the everlasting way.

Today's Thought: Ask God to help you regularly seek examination by the Holy Spirit and repent from wrongdoings that have become shadows in your life. What have you confessed lately? What have you repented of lately?

Today's Prayer: Lord Jesus, help me to confess and repent of my sins daily.

Day 5 – Humility

Today's Scripture: Philippians 2:3: Do nothing out of rivalry or conceit, but in humility consider others as more important than you.

Today's Thought: Pray for humility in your life and ask God to help you exemplify humbleness. How do you exalt others around you?

Today's Prayer: God, teach me to have humility. Help me to not look down on others around me.

Day 6 – Purity

Today's Scripture: Psalm 119:133: Make my steps steady through your promise; don't let sin dominate me.

Today's Thought: Pray for yourself to be renewed by God's Word that no sin will have dominion over you. What sins are trying to dominate your life? Be honest with yourself. Ask God to show you imperfections in your life. Yes, shortcomings, we all have them. We must walk in righteousness, integrity, and truth. What does God's Word say about those sins?

Today's Prayer: Lord, help me to capture impure thoughts & imaginations that do not represent you.

Day 7 – Hunger for God

Today's Scripture: Hebrews 5:14: But solid food is for the mature—for those whose senses have been trained to distinguish between good and evil.

Today's Thought: Pray for a hunger and thirst for God and His Word as you seek Him daily. How are you getting to know God better?

Today's Prayer: God, I want to know you better. Fill my heart with your passion that I may fulfill your purposes in my life.

Day 8 – Boldness to share the Gospel

Today's Scripture: Ephesians 6:19: Pray also for me, that the message may be given to me when I open my mouth to make known with boldness the mystery of the gospel.

Today's Thought: Ask God to give you boldness to share the gospel with others with whom you come in contact. Share with someone this week about an opportunity you recently had sharing the gospel.

Today's Prayer: Almighty God, grant me boldness to share my faith with others.

Day 9 – Rest

Today's Scripture: Mark 6:31: He said to them, "Come away by yourselves to a remote place and rest a while." For many people were coming and going, and they did not even have time to eat.

Today's Thought: Ask God to help you recognize the need for rest away from ministry responsibilities. How many hours of rest do you get daily? How much time do you spend with your family?

Today's Prayer: Lord, teach me to rest in you to hear your voice. Help me to still away from the busyness of life and rest.

Day 10 – Guard the Treasure

Today's Scripture: 2 Timothy 1:13-14: Hold on to the pattern of sound teaching that you have heard from me, in the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. Guard, through the Holy Spirit who lives in us, that good thing entrusted to you.

Today's Thought: Pray that God will help you focus on sharing the gospel and not be distracted by issues. Who did you share the gospel with recently?

Today's Prayer: Lord, help me to speak with clarity of speech about the gospel with others.

Day 11 – Glory to God

Today's Scripture:

There was a man of the Pharisees named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews. This man came to Jesus by night and said to him, "Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher come from God, for no one can do these signs that you do unless God is with him." Jesus answered him, "Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one is born again, they cannot see the kingdom of God" (John 3:1-3).

Today's Thought:

Today is the midpoint of our Daniel Fast—we're half-way through! The spiritual rhythms of the fast we're observing during the week form the foundation for corporate worship on Sunday. Few things are more fulfilling than joining our hearts together with people on the same spiritual journey we're on. Corporate worship enriches our lives, builds up the church and prepares us for eternity. For that to happen, though, we must be honest—with ourselves and, more to the point, with God.

Our Bible passage today is a case study. Nicodemus was a leading figure among the Jews who lived in Jerusalem during the time of Jesus. He had an important position in the political and religious circles of the day. He had a reputation among his peers. He apparently was financially comfortable. He was even recognized by the Roman authorities. Like so many people, then and now, he had built a life for himself on the virtues of hard work, intelligence, and morality. That's not a bad life—far from it! In fact, that kind of life is the goal for most people. The problem with that kind of life is that it's fundamentally dishonest because it ignores reality. True life, real life happens not when we build it on what we have, what we do or what others think of us. It happens only when we align ourselves with God's identity for us and God's purpose for us. In other words, when we're content with who we are as children of God and joyous in experiencing God's purpose for us.

Nicodemus's experience is a picture of honesty. The fact that he comes to Jesus "by night" illustrates both that he's coming out of spiritual darkness and that he's ashamed to be seen with Jesus for fear of ridicule from his peers. He must have an honest conversation with the Lord. Jesus tells him, as He tells us, that we must be born again. To come into relationship with Him requires the spiritual rebirth that only the Spirit of God can accomplish within us. Then we'll be honest with ourselves and with God.

Today's Prayer: Let the focus of your prayer today be the words of Psalm 139:23-), "Search me, O God, and know my heart! Try me and know my anxious thoughts! And see if there be any hurtful way in me and lead me in the everlasting way!"

Day 12 – Dependence on God

Today's Scripture: Proverbs 3:5-6: Trust in the LORD with all your heart, and do not rely on your own understanding; think about Him in all your ways, and He will guide you on the right paths.

Today's Thought: Ask God to help you learn to depend on Him. What ways can you depend on God in your life?

Today's Prayer: God, help me to my trust in you.

Day 13 – Daily Prayer

Today's Scripture: Acts 6:4: But we will devote ourselves to prayer and to the preaching ministry.

Today's Thought: Ask God to help you show up at the practice field of prayer and get to know God more. How is your prayer life? What will it take to have conversations with God? Can you identify times that you can spend moments with God, and do it? What hinders you from praying? Would it help to talk to someone else about your hang ups with prayer & God? Do you recognize answered prayer in your life? Share some of those answered prayers with someone.

Today's Prayer: Lord Jesus help me to talk to you through prayer. I want to develop my relationship with you, God. Help me to know your voice.

Day 14 – Stay Focused!

Today's Scripture: Matthew 14:30-32, But when he saw the wind, he was afraid and beginning to sink, cried out, 'Lord, save me!' Immediately Jesus reached out his hand and caught him, 'You of little faith, 'he said, 'why did you doubt?''

Today's Thought: By faith Peter had stepped out of the boat and like Jesus was walking on the water. If he stayed focused on Jesus, he had victory in the storm. But he was soon distracted by the winds howling around his head and the waves crashing around his feet. The distractions caused him to lose focus and he started to sink. Fear always comes when you lose focus when you take your eyes off the Lord. Pray, "Help!" Your prayer doesn't have to be long to be strong. Stay Focused!

Today's Prayer: Help me to stay focused on my priorities in life, Lord. I pray that my distractions will be minimized by the victories of faith & works.

Day 15 – Eyes to See Like Jesus

Today's Scripture: 1 Samuel 16: 7: But the Lord said to Samuel, "Do not look at his appearance or his stature, because I have rejected him. Man does not see what the LORD sees, for man sees what is visible, but the LORD sees the heart."

Today's Thought: Pray that God will allow you to see the hearts and minds of others as Christ does. How do you relate to others of different races, cultures, or economic backgrounds?

Today's Prayer: Jesus, give me eyes to see others like you see them. I need help in not bringing judgement on others before I get to know them.

Day 16 – Direction from God

Today's Scripture: Isaiah 48:17: This is what the LORD, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel says: I am the LORD your God, who teaches you for [your] benefit, who leads you in the way you should go.

Today's Thought: Pray that God will give us vision and direction for our ministry. What is God saying to your heart about our ministry?

Today's Prayer: God, I need direction in my life. What would you have me to do with the gifts, talents, and abilities given to me? Lead me, God.

Day 17 – Team Spirit

Today's Scripture: 1 Corinthians 3:7-9: So then neither the one who plants nor the one who waters is anything, but only God who gives the growth. Now the one who plants and the one who waters are equal, and each will receive his own reward according to his own labor. For we are God's co-workers. You are God's field, God's building.

Today's Thought: Ask God to build strong disciples in our ministry that bring glory to God. What will you do to forge partnerships in this congregation?

Today's Prayer: Creator of the Universe, unite our efforts together in this fellowship of believers through teamwork.

Day 18 – Stand Firm

Today's Scripture: 2 Cor.4:17 For our momentary light affliction is producing for us an incomparable eternal weight of glory.

Today's Thought: Ask God to help you stand firm on the Word when tempted, stressed, and challenged. What Word have you hidden in your heart concerning something that has challenged you?

Today's Prayer: God, I get stressed out with my situations every day. Help me to stand firm on my faith with discernment to manage each situation vigorously.

Day 19 – Boast in the Lord

Today's Scripture: 2 Corinthians 10:17: So, the one who boasts must boast in the Lord.

Today's Thought: Be quick to give God the credit. Praise God for your household.

Today's Prayer:

Jesus, teach me give credit where is do. Help me know that you are constantly working on my behalf. Matter of fact, help me to identify ways you have blessed me daily.

Day 20 – Get Out the Boat!

Today's Scripture: Matthew 14:29, Come,' he said. Then Peter got down out of the boat, walked on the water and came toward Jesus."

Today's Thought: Jesus calls Peter out of the boat onto the water! That's exciting! He took a step of faith and opted for adventure! That's what faith will do? The best time to take a step-in faith is not always when things are calm, and the weather is fair. Peter was not standing on the water; he was standing on the Word! And when you are standing on God's Word, that's enough to keep you afloat in any storm!

What may God be calling you to come today? When the Lord gives you clearance to step out on faith, do not let the naysayers keep you in the boat! Sometimes they want you to stay in the boat because misery loves company! Step out despite what others may say. You may end up doing what others have never done. Besides, maybe Jesus wants you to get out of the boat because he knows you are a leader. He knows that if you get out, others will too! It's your time – Get Out of the Boat!"

Today's Prayer: Lord, help us to get out of the boat of life and take the next step in God's kingdom. Increase our faith in action, O God.

Day 21 – Persistence

Today's Scripture:

You make known to me the path of life; in your presence there is fullness of joy; at your right hand there are pleasures forevermore. (Psalm 16:11)

Today's Thought: We have participated in the Daniel Fast for one reason: to join our hearts together as we seek the Lord's presence in our church for the coming year. Today our fast is completed. I pray these weeks have made an impact on each of you! We said at the beginning that seasons of fasting sometimes lead to new revelation and spiritual authority.

For some of you, the Lord may have brought revelation concerning a decision you need to make or a change that needs to happen or an attitude in your heart that needs to be altered. For others, you may have spent more time in prayer than in the past, and the Lord has answered your prayers in some remarkable ways. Maybe for some, there hasn't been a noticeable change in your spiritual life. I want to especially speak to you.

The important thing is that you were diligent in seeking the Lord—whatever ways He might or might not have worked in your life in response to your fasting is His business. Ours is to be faithful! So be encouraged that “your labor in the Lord is not in vain.” And for our team as a whole—what should we expect to happen now that our fasting is completed for this season?

What I pray has happened is that, in some subtle but important ways, we've re-aligned ourselves to the presence and purposes of God. Prayer isn't magic; it isn't a way to manipulate God into fulfilling selfish agendas. Prayer isn't therapy, either, where individuals or groups try to feel better about the way things are. Prayer is instead the mysterious workings of the Spirit, in which we encounter the omnipotent God and somehow can move events in ways that wouldn't happen if we didn't pray.

Today's Prayer: Almighty God, we praise You and honor You today as our God, as our Savior Jesus and as our Holy Spirit Comforter. We've sought You these weeks with all our heart and now we want more! We want more of You and more of Your Kingdom. We invite you more fully into our lives and into the life of our church. And even as we move more deeply into Your grace, we ask that we might see the needs of the people around us with Your eyes and feel their need with Your heart. People without Jesus and without hope. Compel us from safety and comfort into the world with Jesus' saving message. Thank You for meeting us in this season of prayer and fasting. In Jesus' Name, Amen.

HEART- SEARCHING, FOR PRAYER PREPARATION AND PERSONAL REVIVAL

Rosevelt Morris, D.Min., Associate Pastor, Sixth Avenue Baptist Church

Psalm 139: 23-24 - "Search me, O God, and know my heart, try me and know my thoughts: and see if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting"

Confession of sin is necessary for fellowship with God and revival among God's people. Prayerfully, consider the following questions.

IN READING THESE QUESTIONS, AS YOU ARE CONVICTED OF SIN, CONFESS IT AT ONCE TO GOD. BE WILLING TO MAKE IT RIGHT . . . I John 1:9 - "If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness."

1. Matthew 6:14-15

Is there anyone against whom you hold a grudge? Anyone you haven't forgiven? Anyone you hate? Anyone you do not love? Are there any misunderstandings that you are unwilling to forget? Is there any person against whom you are harboring bitterness, resentment, or jealousy? Anyone you dislike hearing praised or well-spoken of? Do you allow anything to justify a wrong attitude toward another? Mark 11:25; I John 4:7-12; Matt. 5:23-24; Eph. 4:21-32; Heb. 10:30, 12:14.

2. Matthew 6:33

Is there anything in which you have failed to put God first? Have your decisions been made after your own wisdom and desires, rather than seeking and following God's will? Do any of the following, in any way, interfere with your surrender and service to God: ambition, pleasures, loved ones, friendships, desire for recognition, money, your own plans? Matt. 6:19-21, 24; I Tim. 6:7-11; Heb. 13:5-6; Luke 16:13.

3. Romans 10:1, "Brethren, my heart's desire and my prayer to God is for their salvation."

Do you pray regularly for the lost? Do you intercede for the lost people groups of the world? Have you failed to seek the lost for Christ? Has your life not shown to the lost the Lord Jesus?

4. John 13:35

Are you secretly pleased over the misfortunes of another? Are you secretly annoyed over the accomplishments or advancement of another? Are you guilty of any contention or strife? Do you quarrel, argue, or engage in heated discussions? Are you engaged in any divisions or party spirit? Are there people whom you deliberately slight? I Cor. 3:1-3; Prov. 6:16-19, 14:30; Rom. 14:10; James 3:6-17; I Peter 4:8.

5. Acts 20:35

Have you robbed God by withholding His due of time, talents, and money? Have you given less than a tenth of your income for God's work? Have you failed to support mission work either in prayer or in offering? II Cor. 9:6-8; Luke 6:38; Prov. 19:17, 22:9; Mal. 3:10; Phil. 4:19.

6. I Corinthians 4:2

Are you undependable so you cannot be trusted with responsibilities in the Lord's work? Are you allowing your emotions to be stirred for things of the Lord but doing nothing about it? Rom. 5:4-5; Eph. 4:13; James 1:2.

7. 1 Corinthians 6:19-20

Are you in any way careless with your body? Do you fail to care for it as the temple of the Holy Spirit? Are you guilty of intemperance in eating or drinking? Do you have any habits which are defiling to the body? John 7:4; Gal. 6:7-8; Prov. 23:21; Rom. 16:18; Phil. 3:19.

8. I Corinthians 10:31

Do you take the slightest credit for anything good about you, rather than give all the glory to God? Do you talk of what you have done rather than what Christ has done? Are your statements mostly about "me"? Are your feelings easily hurt? Have you made a pretense of being something that you are not? Gal. 2:20; Phil. 1:21, 2:5; Titus 3:5; Prov. 3:5-6.

9. Ephesians 3:20

Are you self-conscious rather than Christ-conscious? Do you allow feelings of inferiority to keep you from attempting things you should in serving God? Do you pray boldly, with confidence in what Christ can do? Or are your prayers hindered because of unbelief? Phil. 4:13; 2 Tim.1:7-8; James 1:5-8.

10. Ephesians 4:28

Do you underpay? Do you do very little in your work? Have you been careless in payment of your debts? Have you sought to evade payment of debts? Do you waste time for others? Prov. 5:21, 14:23, 15:27, 20:13; Rom. 13:8.

11. Ephesians 4:31-32

Do you complain? Do you find fault? Do you have a critical attitude toward any person or thing? Are you irritable or cranky? Do you ever carry hidden anger? Do you get angry? Do you become impatient with others? Are you ever harsh or unkind? Eph. 4:26; II Cor. 4:2; Phil. 2:14.

12. Ephesians 5:11-15

Do you listen to unedifying radio or TV programs? Do you read unworthy magazines? Do you partake in worldly amusements? Do you find it necessary to seek satisfaction from any questionable source? Are you doing certain things that show you are not satisfied in the Lord Jesus Christ? Phil. 4:8; James 1:15.

13. Ephesians 5:20

Have you neglected to thank Him for all things, the seemingly bad, as well as the good? Have you virtually called God a liar by doubting His Word? Do you worry? Is your spiritual temperature based on your feelings instead of God's Word? I Thess. 5:18; Eph. 5:20; Phil. 4:6; I Pet. 5:7; Col. 3:17; Heb. 13:6.

14. Philippians 1:21

Are you taken up with the cares of this life? Is your conversation or heart joy over "things" rather than the Lord and His Word? Does anything mean more to you than living for and pleasing Christ? Prov. 8:19; Col. 3:1-3.

15. Philippians 2:14

Do you ever by word or deed seek to hurt someone? Do you gossip? Do you speak unkindly concerning people when they are not present? Are you prejudiced against true Christians because they are of different group than yours or because they do not see everything exactly like you? Gal. 6:2.

3. Traditional Style Vegan Shepherd's Pie | Ready in 75 minutes

Recipe By: VeggieChefLaura

Ingredients

- Mashed potato layer:
- 5 russet potatoes, peeled and cut into 1-inch cubes
- 1/2 cup vegan mayonnaise
- 1/2 cup soy milk
- 1/4 cup olive oil
- 3 tablespoons vegan cream cheese substitute (such as Tofutti (R))
- 2 teaspoons salt
- Bottom layer:
- 1 tablespoon vegetable oil
- 1 large yellow onion, chopped
- 2 carrots, chopped
- 3 stalks celery, chopped
- 1/2 cup frozen peas
- 1 tomato, chopped
- 1 teaspoon Italian seasoning
- 1 clove garlic, minced, or more to taste
- 1 pinch ground black pepper to taste
- 1 (14 ounce) package vegetarian ground beef substitute
- 1/2 cup shredded Cheddar-style soy cheese

Directions

1. Place the potatoes in a pot, cover with cold water, and bring to a boil over medium-high heat. Turn the heat to medium-low, and boil the potatoes until tender, about 25 minutes; drain.

2. Stir the vegan mayonnaise, soy milk, olive oil, vegan cream cheese, and salt into the potatoes, and mash with a potato masher until smooth and fluffy. Set the potatoes aside.
3. Preheat oven to 400 degrees F (200 degrees C), and spray a 2-quart baking dish with cooking spray.
4. Heat the vegetable oil in a large skillet over medium heat, and cook and stir the onion, carrots, celery, frozen peas, and tomato until softened, about 10 minutes. Stir in the Italian seasoning, garlic, and pepper.
5. Reduce the heat to medium-low, and crumble the vegetarian ground beef substitute into the skillet with the vegetables. Cook and stir, breaking up the meat substitute, until the mixture is hot, about 5 minutes.
6. Spread the vegetarian meat substitute mixture into the bottom of the baking dish, and top with the mashed potatoes, smoothing them into an even layer. Sprinkle the potatoes with the shredded soy cheese.
7. Bake in the preheated oven until the cheese is melted and slightly browned and the casserole is hot, about 20 minutes.

5. Hearty Vegan Slow-Cooker Chili |

Ready in 6 hours

Recipe By:Grete

Ingredients

- 1 tablespoon olive oil
- 1 green bell pepper, chopped
- 1 red bell pepper, chopped
- 1 yellow bell pepper, chopped
- 2 onions, chopped
- 4 cloves garlic, minced
- 1 (10 ounce) package frozen chopped spinach, thawed and drained
- 1 cup frozen corn kernels, thawed
- 1 zucchini, chopped
- 1 yellow squash, chopped
- 6 tablespoons chili powder
- 1 tablespoon ground cumin
- 1 tablespoon dried oregano
- 1 tablespoon dried parsley
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon ground black pepper
- 2 (14.5 ounce) cans diced tomatoes with juice
- 1 (15 ounce) can black beans, rinsed and drained
- 1 (15 ounce) can garbanzo beans, drained
- 1 (15 ounce) can kidney beans, rinsed and drained
- 2 (6 ounce) cans tomato paste

- 1 (8 ounce) can tomato sauce, or more if needed
- 1 cup vegetable broth, or more if needed

Directions

1. Heat olive oil in a large skillet over medium heat, and cook the green, red, and yellow bell peppers, onions, and garlic until the onions start to brown, 8 to 10 minutes. Place the mixture into a slow cooker. Stir in spinach, corn, zucchini, yellow squash, chili powder, cumin, oregano, parsley, salt, black pepper, tomatoes, black beans, garbanzo beans, kidney beans, and tomato paste until thoroughly mixed. Pour the tomato sauce and vegetable broth over the ingredients.
2. Set the cooker on Low, and cook until all vegetables are tender, 4 to 5 hours. Check seasoning; if chili is too thick, add more tomato sauce and vegetable broth to desired thickness. Cook an additional 1 to 2 hours to blend the flavors.

Bonus tips

- If you're used to cooking with meat, it can be overwhelming to plan a meal without. Start with hearty vegan stews and soups to help replicate the texture.
- January is chock full of wonderful root vegetables. Roast them and add to salads, to curries, to soups, and atop baked potatoes or sweet potatoes for a quick meal. Don't forget your favorite spices or condiments (taking care to avoid added sugar).
- Tired of chunky soup? Get out your immersion blender or regular blender and smooth it out. Tired of smooth soup? Try it chunky. Sometimes, a change in texture makes all the difference.
- During the fast (or any dietary transition) reserve a few hours on the weekend and one weeknight for meal prep. Prep your vegetables, wash your fruit, assemble snacks, bake grab-and-go breakfast items, make oatmeal, and divide into individual containers. The trick to staying on course is always having something to easily eat right from your fridge.
- Dress up oatmeal (or cornmeal mush) for any meal by adding fresh fruit, baked fruit, toasted nuts, or spices.
- Visualize your day and all the points in time in which you eat or snack. If you typically take a cookie break at 3 p.m., stash some roasted nuts or a healthy dip and cut-up vegetables in your bag. Will it be the same? Nope. But you'll be so proud the next day when you find you're still going strong.
- No caffeine and no soda and no tea is challenging for a lot of folks. Make your water more exciting by adding citrus: a wedge of lime, tangelo, lemon, or grapefruit will do wonders.
